

“If” you don’t want it to lose value the minute it leaves the lot.

Full replacement cost coverage is standard with every* MetLife® Auto policy. We understand how special your new car is. And how heartbreaking it is if it gets totaled. So we help you build your own personal safety net with our new car replacement cost coverage at no additional cost. With MetLife Auto & Home® there’s absolutely no depreciation on your new car for the first year or the first 15,000 miles, whichever comes first. And there’s also full replacement cost coverage for special parts like tires, batteries and shocks for the life of your policy. Because we believe these extra coverages should be standard and that we should always be there to help you handle the “ifs” on the road ahead.
