

Structured Installment Sales Suitability Acknowledgement Form

Metropolitan Tower Life Insurance Company
Administrative office:
200 Park Avenue
New York, NY 10166

Note: While the Seller/Annuitant is not the owner of the annuity, Metropolitan Tower Life Insurance Company “Met Tower Life” wants to ensure that the receipt of installment payments is suitable for the Seller/Annuitant’s financial circumstances, because the annuity that will be used to fund the underlying Purchase & Sale Agreement cannot be accelerated, nor can money be withdrawn from the annuity.

Section 1: Seller/Annuitant Information

Seller/Annuitant Name (first, middle, last, as applicable): _____ Age _____

Seller Entity Name (as applicable): _____

Seller/Annuitant’s Resident State _____ Is property located in same state? _____

(e.g. Stocks & Bonds, Government Securities, Fixed or Variable Annuities, Mutual Funds, Variable Insurance, Certificates of Deposit, etc.)

_____ Yes _____ No

Primary reason for MetLife Assignment Company purchasing an annuity (please affirm primary reason):

_____ To Satisfy the Purchase and Sales Agreement wherein the Buyer may assign its obligation to make periodic payments to the Seller/Annuitant to a third-party assignment company (“Assignee”). If such an assignment is made, the Assignee shall purchase a single-premium immediate fixed annuity from Metropolitan Tower Life Insurance Company to fund the payment obligation.

Rationale:

Broker must provide the basis for the recommendation of the Structured Installment Sale, explaining how this arrangement will result in a positive financial benefit for the Seller/Annuitant over the term of the annuity. The response below should explain the considerations assessed regarding the potential disadvantages of using an annuity to fund the payment obligations under the Purchase and Sales Agreement: (if necessary please use additional pages to explain)
