

Life comes in many shapes and sizes. Protect your priorities with life insurance.

Why life insurance matters

Life insurance is a cost-effective way to protect your loved ones. Should something unforeseen happen to you, it helps ensure that short- and long-term financial obligations could be met. If you have a spouse or domestic partner, if you have children, they may rely on you to help keep the household running. Without your income paying the mortgage or providing for a child's college education could become more difficult.

Term life insurance gives your loved ones a lump sum payment. This would help them be financially prepared to better handle expenses like:

- Mortgage or rent payments
- Utilities
- Insurance premiums
- Childcare/education fees
- Transportation
- Credit card bills

A premature death is likely to exert a major or devastating impact on financial security, lifestyle and general savings.¹

Experts recommend a coverage amount equal to at least 10 years of your annual income.^{1,2}

Review your life insurance needs regularly to help ensure adequate protection for your loved ones.

Consider these average Group Term Life Insurance policy costs for a healthy 35-year-old:

$50k
in coverage

Estimated cost $3–$4 per month³
That's near the cost of a latte!

$250k
in coverage

Estimated cost $13–$20 per month³
That's a movie ticket and popcorn!⁴

$500k
in coverage

Estimated cost $25–$40 per month³
That's one month at a fitness center!⁴

Consider this life event:

Consider this scenario:

Renee's father passed away a few months before she left for college. Fortunately, he had group life insurance through MetLife, which helped cover Renee's tuition and allowed her to pursue her dream to become a registered nurse. Now, she has life insurance through her employer to help make sure her kids will have the same opportunities if something happens to her.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is a beneficiary?

- A. The person you choose to receive the life insurance proceeds should something happen to you. It's possible to have multiple beneficiaries and you can update them regularly should your circumstances or needs change.

I already have basic life insurance through my employer, why do I need more?

- A. While having life insurance provided by your employer is a great benefit, it's possible that it may not be enough to adequately provide for your loved ones. Additional life insurance can give them greater financial security if you are no longer here to earn a paycheck.

How much life insurance do I need?

- A. Everyone is different, but it may be more than you have now. The insurance you need changes as your life changes — for example, getting married, starting a family, or buying a home may change the coverage you need. Many people are surprised to learn that they may not have enough life insurance to cover the many expenses their loved ones may face.

How much will it cost?

- A. It may be less expensive than you think. MetLife's group term life insurance plans are a cost-effective way for you to provide for your loved ones with competitive group rates and a wide range of coverage options to choose from. Exact rates can be found in the enrollment materials provided by your employer.

How do I pay for my coverage?

- A. Premiums are conveniently paid through payroll deductions, so you don't have to worry about writing a check or missing a payment.

How are claims paid?

- A. A claim needs to be filed with the life insurance company upon the death of the insured. A tax-free death benefit is paid in a single lump-sum to your chosen beneficiary or beneficiaries.⁵
